

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

No Rest Day or Night

"I would lay awake for hours without any apparent cause, or dream terrible dreams which would bring on extreme spells of nervousness. After taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Tonic for awhile I could sleep well, and the nervous spells have left me." MISS ALMA HUG, R. R. No. 4, Canal Dover, Ohio.

Without sleep the nervous system soon becomes a wreck, and the healthful activity of all the organs obstructed. Restful, body-building sleep accompanies the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine because it soothes the irritable nerves, and restores nervous energy. When taken a few days according to directions, the most restless sufferer will find sleep natural and healthful. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

Stray Pointers

When the world is free of knockers it will be no more.

Our needs are small, though our wants are never satisfied.

Our mistakes are plain enough after we have made them.

Anybody who can keep his enthusiasm can keep his youth.

People who never take pains always make pains for somebody else.

Heaven means to some men a place where they will not have to work.

We have often wondered at what age old maids quit using face bloom.

A home that is founded on anything but mutual respect is founded on sand.

When we try to go through this world without trouble, then we get into trouble.

The reason some men are so good to work in the garden is because they like to.

When a man asks a woman to share his lot, he should have one, with a house on it.

The pads and puffs the women were are made to fool the men. A woman can't be fooled by them.

If we all attended strictly to our own business, business would be better tended, and peace would be spread over all.

It is an exceptional woman who is entirely satisfied with the way the Lord made her.

A man who is stuck on his looks is a sight to make the angels weep at with mortification.

Some of the ugliest people in the world look all right outside. Their ugly is all on the inside.

A good citizen is willing to make some sacrifices to help along the welfare of his community.

The usual reason that a young man cannot find a job is that he is looking for a snap instead of a job.

The bad boy who is always upheld by his parents in all his meanness has a clear road to the gallows.

The woman who growls about every meal she has to cook ought to have to wear a gag or go into some other business.

A man with a bald head can be a good Christian, a true father and a loving husband, but he cannot be very handsome.

A woman can perform more mechanical operations with a hair pin than the average man can with a whole kit of tools.

The chief business of the human race is to bring up the young, yet a good many people allow them to scramble up any old way.

Too many people neglect the essential things and give their time to others that make a bigger show but are as well left undone.

Times change. A few decades ago it was a sign of opulence to own a piano and now it is a sign of opulence to own an automobile.

The average man thinks he knows as much as the average doctor about the human system, until the average man gets the gripe.

People who sponge their way through the world have no right to live. Every man and woman should work enough to pay for their need.

Children who are taught good manners as a part of their daily home life never shock their parents and make them ashamed in company.

A poor man can have just as much fun as anybody else if he knows how to go about it. One's good times are all in his mental outlook, anyway.

Home to some men means the place where they can express their feelings in vigorous terms without any danger of getting a black eye.

Our brother's faults and failings stand out before us glaringly conspicuous, while our own shortcomings are so small we can hardly see them.

The person who has nothing better to do than to talk mean about his neighbors should not count on going to heaven for everybody will do right up there and he would find himself out of a job.

Order of Publication

(In vacation.)

State of Missouri, County of Linn, ss. In the Circuit Court, October Term, 1909.

W. O. Finney, Plaintiff.

Nellie Finney, Defendant.

At this 8th day of July, 1909, comes the plaintiff herein, before the undersigned Clerk in vacation, and files his petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that Defendant, Nellie Finney, is not a resident of the State of Missouri and can not be served by due process of law in this state. Whereupon, it is ordered by the undersigned Clerk in vacation, that said Defendant be notified by publication that Plaintiff has commenced a suit against her in this Court, the object and general nature of which is to secure a judgment and decree of this Court, divorcing the Plaintiff from the bonds of matrimony contracted with Defendant, and that unless the said Nellie Finney be and appear at this Court at the next term thereof to be begun and holden at the court house in the City of Brookfield in said County on the fourth day of October next, and on or before the first day of said term answer or plead to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed and judgment will be rendered accordingly. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in THE LACLEDE BLADE, a newspaper published in said County of Linn, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least thirty days before the first day of said next October term of this Court.

J. N. WILSON, Circuit Clerk.
A TRUE COPY FROM THE RECORD.
Witness my hand and the seal of the Circuit Court of Linn County, this 8th day of July, 1909.
J. N. WILSON,
Circuit Clerk.

Woman's Beauty

Some women retain their beauty to an advanced age. But women, who regularly endure pain, age rapidly, for suffering leaves its lasting marks on them.

Nearly all women suffer more or less with some form of female trouble. It should not be neglected. Avoid the pain—treat yourself at home by taking Cardui, as thousands of other women have done. Begin at once and give Cardui a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

J 35

It Will Help You

Mrs. Katie Burlison, Goreville, Ill., tried Cardui and writes: "I suffered with female troubles, and was so sick I could not stand on my feet. Finally I began to take Cardui, and soon began to mend. Now I am able to do all my housework and am in much better health than I was before." Try it.
